Cancellation of an annual membership:

A 12-month upfront membership is non-cancellable within the first 12 months of membership. If a membership is not renewed by/on the specific renewal date, your membership will be deemed to have lapsed and you will not be allowed access to the Spa without payment. If you wish to re-join after your membership has lapsed (i.e. after your renewal date), you may have to pay a re-joining fee.

Cancellation of direct debit payment membership:

Once you have entered a minimum 12-month contract agreement with Source Spa and Wellness, we will accept cancellation requests at month 10. This will ensure membership will cease at the end of the initial minimum 12-month contract, otherwise membership will continue automatically on a rolling monthly basis until such time as we receive the cancellation request, whereupon a minimum 60 days' notice and two corresponding payments will be due.

Subscriptions, joining fees and direct debits:

In applying for membership, the member understands that joining fees and annual subscriptions are non-refundable. Payment is made either by single payment for the entire year or by direct debit.

Joint membership: Joint members must live at the same address. Where Joint membership fees are paid by direct debit, they must be paid from one bank account only. If one part of the joint membership ceases to be a member and the remaining person wishes to continue, they must revert to an individual rate.

Membership cards: Members must carry their membership cards when visiting The Spa. Replacement cards are available from reception at a cost. Members are responsible for their cards. Shared access with a non-member will result in termination of membership with immediate effect.
